Principal's News

On Wednesday we will be having family/school conversations. These meetings are an important opportunity for families to share information with class teachers about students and for teachers to talk to families about learning goals for the year. All students should be in correct uniform each and every day including their school hat. We need to work together to ensure that this occurs.

With thanks- Alison
Acting Principal.

PROJECT
COMPASSION
GO FURTHER TOGETHER

Every family received a Project Compassion box last week-please donate. Every bit counts!

COMING UP:

Our beginning of the year welcome back to school picnic will be rescheduled to Tuesday March 17th
School and Family Conversations-Wednesday
March 4th-school closure day-NO CLASSES FOR STUDENTS

“I Am Because We Are”

Our school value of Respectful Communication is important for everyone. We need to listen deeply to each other and speak with kindness. This is important for students, staff and parents.

All students are required to wear their school hat at school every day.
