Principal's News

Welcome back to a new week! Thank you for your support with the surveillance Rapid Testing for students. These should be conducted on a Sunday night, Tuesday night and Thursday night.

Vaccinations for children aged 5-11 are another important means of protecting children. Click here to book your child's vaccination appointment.

Today is St. Valentine's Day- a day where we are called to show our love for each other.

A summary of our Covid-19 safety plan:

- If a St Dominic's student lives in a household where someone is positive to Covid they MUST stay home.
- Social distancing is in place and is very important.
- If your child is sick, they MUST stay at home.
- If your child has any symptoms at school, such as sore throat, headache, sneezing, coughing they will be sent home.
- Hand sanitizer and enhanced cleaning protocols are in place.
- Students in years 3-6 must wear masks at school and Prep-2 students are encouraged to wear masks.
- Masks must be worn inside and on the school grounds by all staff and adults.
- All parents and carers must wait in the car park before and after school.
